SIGNIFICANT VOTE AT MINNEAPOLIS

YESTERDAY'S MOVE BEARS ON AN IMPORTANT QUESTION

Resolution to Change the Name of the Episcopal Church in a Form of Invitation Is Carried—Reception to the Bishops—The House of Deputies Is in Session.

Minneapolis, Oct. 4.—The prelates, priests and lay delegates composing the triennial convention of the Episcopal church got down to work yesterday, and daily for the next three weeks with the exception of the Sabbaths and one day upon which an excursion to Faribault has been arranged, the house of bishops and the house of deputies will each hold two sessions. The bishops meet in secret, the public and press being strictly excluded, an abstract of the proceedings being furnished for publication by the secretary of the body. The sessions of the house of deputies, however, are open to the public so far as the capacity of the church will admit.

The temper of the house of deputies toward the proposition to change the name of the church was incidentally shown by its action on the invitation to the house of bishops to meet the deputies to receive the visiting Canadian bishops. The resolution of invitation contained the words "The American Church." A Virginia delegate moved to amend by substitution of the words "Protestant Episcopal Church of the United States," which is the legal title. This amendment was voted down by 82 yeas to 222 nays.

The morning prayers were conducted by Bishop Kendrick of New Mexico and Rev. Dr. Powers of central Pennsylvania, after which the deputies settled down to business. Rev. Dr. Morgan Dix, the president, read a long list of standing committees.

A resolution to extend fraternal greetings to the Northern Minnesota conference, now in session in this city, was at first tabled, but afterward taken from the table and passed.

The order of the day, which was the consideration of the revised constitution and canons, being in order, it was resolved, after considerable discussion, that this report of the committee be considered by articles and sections, and that, after the recess, they join in the welcome to the archbishop and bishops, together with the clerical and lay representatives of the Canadian church. The report of the work of the past three years, prepared by Bishop Williams, of Connecticut, was read by Rev. Dr. Millsbaugh.

The report of the commission on constitution revision was then taken up, Dean E. A. Hoffman of New York taking the floor in its defense. After some debate, in which ex-Senator Edmunds of Vermont was a participant, the report was referred to the committee of the whole by the close vote of 135 to 130. James Packard was called to the chairmanship of the committee of the whole and Dean Hoffman began the reading of the declaration preceding the constitution.

Alluding to the creation of the commission and the causes which led up to it, Dean Hoffman said that he and his co-laborers had been called upon to perform a gigantic duty. They had worked hard and conscientiously, and had acquitted themselves to the best of their ability.

"The church," said he, "has outgrown its present constitution, and there are many things suggested in the commission's report which should be adopted. As to the canons, some of them contradict the constitution and many of them contradict themselves." The house then went into committee of the whole to consider the report.

At the appointed hour of noon the reception of Canadian prelates was held. The House of Deputies were on the revision all afternoon and little progress was made. The entire declaration at the beginning of their report was knocked out by the House. This was reversal number one for the revision commission. The second one was the restoring of the old name of the body, which meets every three years. The revision commission wanted to change the name from general convention to general synod, but the deputies would not have it that way, and by an overwhelming vote decided to keep the name as at present. There were several other names suggested. There was some discussion, which was not finished when the session adjourned, relative to a clause which should act as a check on the House of Bishops. The commission did not put this in, but some of the deputies wanted to have it so that all business of the House of Deputies must be acted upon one way or the other within three days or it would go into effect without the sanction of the bishops. In the evening an elaborate reception was tendered the bishops and deputies at the West Hotel by Bishop Whipple and Assistant Bishop Gilbert, of Minnesota.

Boys Burn a Playmate.

East Liverpool, Ohio, Oct. 4.—Little Willie Van Dyne, 6 years old, was tied to a stake yesterday while a crowd of his playmates, in the guise of Indians, brought leaves and sticks and piled them around him. The pile was then set on fire. Men rushed to Willie's rescue, but his clothing caught fire and his recovery is said to be impossible.

SHOT AT COL. CROFTON.

Attempt to Assassinate the Officer in Command at Fort Sheridan.

Chicago, Oct. 4.—Col. R. E. A. Crofton, commander of the Fifteenth Infantry at Fort Sheridan, narrowly escaped death, or at least a severe wound, at the hands of Lieut. S. S. Pague, of Co. F, Fifteenth Infantry, yesterday afternoon. The lieutenant fired three shots at the commander of Fort Sheridan. One passed through a loose hole of his overcoat, just over the right groin, the second cut off a button over the left side of the abdomen, and the third passed close to the body.

Lieut. Pague a few minutes before had escaped from the hospital, where he had been undergoing treatment for mental trouble, occasioned, it is said, by overindulgence in liquor. At the fort it was said that the lieutenant was not responsible for his act and that his meeting with Col. Crofton was a chance meeting.

The shooting occasioned great excitement at the fort, both because of the universal good favor in which Lieut. Pague is held by his comrades, who regret exceedingly his mental trouble, and because it was the second time an officer of the Fifteenth Infantry, while suffering from dementia, has attacked Col. Crofton.

Aug. 26, 1894, during the military maneuvers at Evanston, Col. Crofton was attacked by Lieut. Walsh. Walsh met his superior officer on the parade ground and without a word slapped his face. It was afterward found that Walsh was insane. It is probable a court martial will be summoned in a short time to inquire into the facts of yesterday's shooting.

Japan Will Build Its Own Ships.

San Francisco, Cal., Oct. 4.—Private advices received by the last China steamer, which came in Tuesday, show that reports of contracts for warships given by Japan to the Cramp and the Union Iron Works of San Francisco were without foundation. Several Japanese leaders read extracts from American papers showing defects in the new American cruisers, and they argued that it would be folly to have such ships built for Japan. They also brought forward the argument that everything should be done to encourage home industry. Hence they were in favor of buying materials which they could not make, such as armor and guns, but of building the remainder of the ships in their own yards.

One of the Coffins Found Guilty.

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 4.—In the Indianapolis National Bank case against Francis and Percival Coffin for conspiracy the jury returned a verdict yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The verdict was that Francis Coffin is guilty as charged and that Percival is not guilty. This is the second trial for this offense, the charge in both trials being aiding and abetting President Theodore P. Haughey of the late Indianapolis National Bank, to wreck that institution. There was a motion for a new trial, which will be heard Saturday. Meantime the penalty was not fixed by the court.

Illinois Christian Endeavorers.

Bloomington, Ill., Oct. 4.—Never has a state convention of the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor opened more auspiciously than the one in Bloomington last night. The attendance already is large, and gives promise of exceeding that at Galesburg last year. It is believed that Springfield stands the best show for securing next year's meeting. Vice President Adlai E. Stevenson delivered the address of welcome. He paid an eloquent tribute to the society and its aims, and thought the amount of good accomplished was inestimable.

Loss of Vessels Reaches Fifty.

London, Oct. 4.—Much additional wreckage has been washed ashore in the vicinity of Ilfracombe, on the north coast of Devonshire, and it is thought that several vessels foundered in the Bristol Channel during the recent gale. This would make the number of craft of various descriptions lost over fifty, and may considerably increase the loss of life previously estimated at twenty-four.

May Remove China's Capital.

Shanghai, Oct. 4.—Viceroy Li Hung Chang has gone to Peking at the special request of the Dowager Empress of China, with whom he has always had the most cordial relations. A grand scheme of administrative reorganization has been prepared between them, a prominent feature being the removal of the capital from Peking to some more secure place in Central China.

French Consul Insulted.

Constantinople, Oct. 4.—The startling news has been received here from Damascus that the French consul at that place has been attacked by a mob, grossly insulted, and pelted with mud. The French embassy has complained to the Porte, and has demanded prompt redress for the outrage.

Ohio Divorce Statistics.

Columbus, Ohio, Oct. 4.—Statistics completed for the annual report of the secretary of state show that 6,546 suits for divorce were brought during the year. Of these petitions in 970 were refused, and 2,497 divorces were granted, the additional number of cases being still in the courts.

FULL MILLION LOST IN A GREAT FIRE

RHODE ISLAND GOTTEN MILLS SWEEPED BY FLAMES.

Factories and Warehouses in Ruins—Sixteen Hundred Operatives Thrown Out of Employment—Mills Will Be Rebuilt at Once—The Insurance Amounts to About $1,050,000.

Warren, R. I., Oct. 4.—One of the largest fires that has ever occurred in Southeastern New England broke out in one of the three mills of the Warren Manufacturing company, situated about an eighth of a mile from the center of this town, just before 7 o'clock last night, and before it was gotten under control it had swept through three large cotton mills, two warehouses, small sheds, freight cars, and other property, causing a loss which is estimated at more than $1,000,000.

The fire started in the washroom, near the engine-room of No. 1 mill, spread with great rapidity through the building, and threatened adjoining property. Within an hour after the blaze was discovered the flames were roaring through three mills. The magnitude of the fire at once became apparent to the local department, and help was immediately summoned from Bristol, Fall River, and Providence. An engine from Bristol, one from Fall River, and two steamers, two hose carts, and three companies from Providence responded, arriving on special trains. The scene when these out of town companies arrived was appalling. The whole of the southern part of the little town seemed to be a roaring mass of flames, threatening not only the tenement-houses, but even endangering the business part of the town some distance off.

Almost immediately after the additional force had set to work the water supply began to give out, and the combined department worked under a heavy disadvantage.

At 10:30 o'clock warehouses containing $400,000 worth of cotton caught, and in a few moments were a roaring furnace. The flames jumped from these buildings to the lumber yard of R. A. Martin, and his entire stock was food for the fire. Before 11 o'clock the walls of two of the mills fell in and the dwelling houses occupied by the operatives also caught fire, so that it seemed to be spreading in two directions.

By most persistent and arduous efforts, however, the firemen gained control of the conflagration at midnight, but all that was left of the big factories, warehouse and tenements was a blazing pile of ruins. The entire contents of the plant were destroyed, with the exception of fifty bales of cotton from the warehouses, which, after taking fire, dropped into the water and were carried blazing down the bay. Several persons in the crowd of spectators were injured by flying bricks, but none were seriously hurt.

The losses are estimated as follows: Warehouses and factories, $800,000; material, $300,000; lumber yard, $15,000; tenements, $10,000; total, $1,125,000.

The Warren Manufacturing Company is one of the largest cotton manufacturing corporations in the country. John Waterman, of Warren, is the principal owner, and Warren and Providence people are the heaviest stockholders. The three mills destroyed were each 700 feet long and contained 87,000 spindles. Sixteen hundred operatives were employed.

The insurance amounts to $1,050,000, divided as follows: On mills, $50,000; on raw cotton and completed sheetings, $100,000 and on dwellings of operatives, $100,000. As this insurance is in a mutual company of mill owners in many states each will be called upon to pay a proportionate share.

Jail Delivery Frustrated.

Wabash, Ind., Oct. 4.—Roy Garner, aged 12, was lodged in jail yesterday for passing to a prisoner in the jail a revolver and a monkey wrench. The lad attached them to a string, and they were drawn up by a crook named Edwards, in for burglary. Garner claimed he was instructed by Edwards to go to a tramp known as Dutch and procure the weapons, being promised a dollar. Officers searched the cells and found the gun and wrench. Two large iron bars were found in a cell a few days ago, indicating that a jail delivery was contemplated.

Judge Cook Nominated.

Litchfield, Ill., Oct. 4.—The republican congressional convention for the Eighteenth Congressional District nominated Judge Cyrus L. Cook, of Shelby county, on the seventeenth ballot. A resolution was adopted favoring bi-metallism.

Forest Fires in Kentucky.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 4.—Forest fires are raging in the southern part of Garrard county. All the creeks and nearly all the wells are dry and the only way the flames can be checked is by plowing furrows. The fire covers a large area and is spreading.

Decrease of Coin and Bullion.

London, Oct. 4.—The decrease of coin and bullion in the bank of England this week is entirely due to cash going into home circulation as usual at the end of the quarter, the gold imported for the week being only £13,000.

OLNEY HAS WRITTEN A PEPPERY NOTE

VENEZUELAN MATTER REACHES A CRISIS.

Secretary of State Sends a Flat Notice to Great Britain That the United States Will Insist on Arbitration—Letter Sent To Ambassador

New York, Oct. 4.—The Washington special to the Herald says: "The great international question of the hour is the Venezuelan boundary line dispute. Secretary Olney has prepared a dispatch to Ambassador Bayard which will soon bring the matter to an issue. The dispatch is of a most positive and unequivocal character. As soon as it shall be placed before the British government it will raise an issue which can be settled only by the retreat of one or the other government."

"The stand taken by the United States in this dispatch is one which involves the oldest and most sacred traditions of the government—an enforcement of the Monroe doctrine. Secretary Olney's dispatch is in substance a declaration in the most positive language that the United States will never consent to British occupation of the disputed territory in Venezuela unless that nation's rights thereto is first determined by arbitration."

FINED FOR CONTEMPT.

Y. M. C. A. Superintendent Interfered in the Durrant Trial.

San Francisco, Cal., Oct. 4.—The trial of Theodore Durrant was replete with sensations yesterday. Henry J. McCoy, general secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association, who was cited for contempt last Monday for telling Juror Truman that if he did not hang Durrant the people would hang him, was fined $250, with the alternative of five days in the county jail. During the cross-examination of a witness summoned by the defense, the prosecution developed the fact that a student at Cooper Medical College who did not attend the lecture delivered by Dr. Cheney on the afternoon of April 3, was recorded present in the roll-call book. This testimony is of the greatest importance to the prosecution, as it shows the unreliability of the roll-call book, in which Durrant was recorded present on the afternoon when Blanche Lamont was murdered.

Women Elect Officers.

Quincy, Ill., Oct. 4.—The following officers were re-elected at yesterday's session of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union state convention: President, Mrs. Louisa Rounds, Chicago; vice president, Mrs. Carrie G. Kent, Rockford; corresponding secretary, Miss Helen Walker, Bloomington; recording secretary, Miss Ada Bell, Jacksonville; treasurer, Mrs. A. E. Sanford, Bloomington. The treasurer's report showed a membership of 14,633, and in addition 40,000 members of the Loyal Temperance League. Other reports showed that the members had been active and that much good work had been done during the year.

Anti-Prize Fighting Bill Is Law.

Austin, Texas, Oct. 4.—The senate yesterday concurred in a few minor house amendments to its bill preventing prize fighting, and the bill was sent to the governor in the afternoon. The balance of the special session was devoted to matters of special interest suggested by the governor. Immediately upon receipt of the measure the governor appended his signature and the bill became a law.

Cleveland Outplays Baltimore.

Cleveland, Ohio, Oct. 4.—The visitors were outplayed at every point in yesterday's game for the Temple cup. The crowd was 1,000 larger than on Tuesday, fully 8,000 people being in the stands and on the field. The day was perfect. Score:

Cleveland 3 0 0 0 1 2 1 0 * 7
Baltimore 0 1 0 0 0 1 0 0 0 2

Priest Will Marry His Victim.

St. Joseph, Mo., Oct. 4.—Miss Maude Steidel, the pretty 16-year-old girl arrested in Chicago, and Father Dominick Wagner, under arrest for her abduction, will be married here to-day, and legal proceedings on the part of the mother of the girl will be dropped. Harry Wright Dead.

Atlantic City, N. J., Oct. 4.—Harry Wright, chief of umpires and manager of the Philadelphia National League club, died here at 1 o'clock yesterday. Mr. Wright was the oldest, best-known and most respected man connected with baseball of today, and the news of his death will be received everywhere with feelings of personal regret by hundreds of thousands of people.

Armed to Be Court-Martialed.

Washington, Oct. 4.—It has been definitely decided by the war department to appoint a court martial to try Capt. G. A. Ames for his alleged offensive conduct toward Lieutenant General Schofield. Charges and specifications on which the trial will be based have been prepared by Judge Advocate General Lieber, of the army.

SITUATION IS CRITICAL.

Turkish Officials Fear That a Revolution Is Intended.

Constantinople, Oct. 4.—The Armenian patriarch is shut up in his patriarchate with 200 armed followers. They have been ordered by the Turks to surrender. They have refused. If the threatened storming of the building takes place awful slaughter is considered certain to follow. The police say they will clear out the place unless the Armenians reconsider their decision and surrender speedily. The Armenians are huddled together in the church with barely standing room. They have to depend for food upon such scraps as are brought to them. It is estimated at the patriarchate that over 200 Armenians have been killed.

Great consternation prevails at the place, and the sultan has not been in bed since Monday. It is felt that a crisis has arrived, and there is much anxiety lest other revolutionary factions shall join the Armenians.

Owing to the critical situation here the envoys of the powers met at the Austrian embassy, and the German gunboat Loreley has been ordered to remain at the disposal of the German embassy.

SAYS HE IS INNOCENT.

Rev. Mr. Hinshaw Says He Has Nothing to Confess.

Danville, Ind., Oct. 4.—A report was circulated here yesterday that Rev. Mr. Hinshaw would confess, but in an interview he said he had nothing to confess. "I am innocent and that is all there is of it," he looks terribly broken up. He seemed dazed, as if he could not realize the situation. Attorneys Duncan and Smith came out from Indianapolis and had a long talk with the attorneys here and Hinshaw's family. Mr. Smith says he can tell nothing about what they will do as yet. There is a widely circulated report, which the lawyers will not contradict, that the best detectives in the country are hot on the trail of the men at Sheridan, who are thought to be the real murderers. It is said that if they are successful the men will be brought to justice in a few weeks. The defense has not filed any motion for a new trial yet, and they are thought to be waiting for the outcome of the search.

Work of Firebugs.

Kendallville, Ind., Oct. 4.—An attempt was made yesterday to wipe out with incendiaries' torches the property in this city of the Noble County Fair Association. It was the second day of the meeting and 12,000 people were crowded in and around the track, watching the races. At a prearranged signal five fires were started in the piles of straw in the paddock stalls. The row of buildings flashed up like tinder, and before the stray witness or two who saw the matches applied could give the alarm a regular conflagration was in progress. Two lives were lost as the result of the fire. — Jackson, a horseman, burned to death; unknown woman, died from burns. Nine valuable draught horses, entered for prizes, were roasted alive. The fire department was able by hard work to prevent further spread of the fire.

Arguments in Taylor Case Closed.

Pierre, S. D., Oct. 4.—Arguments in the writ of error in the Taylor case before the supreme court were closed yesterday. The whole contention of Horner and Stewart, counsel for Taylor, has been for a strict construction of the statutes in the case, under which they hold the indictment is defective and the sentence pronounced by the lower court is void by being excessive. The contention of the state has been for a liberal construction of the statutes, making their application broad enough that no criminal may escape justice through mere technicalities.

Formal Complaint to Be Made.

Peoria, Ill., Oct. 4.—Colonel Jonathan Merriam of Tazewell county was in the city yesterday making preliminary arrangements to have the alleged legislative boodling matter brought before the session of the grand jury which commences Monday. The cases of two or three representatives who refused to testify will be looked into. As yet formal complaint against any member of the legislature has not been made to State's Attorney Cooney, but such action is expected this week.

Practically Disfranchises Mulattoes.

Columbia, S. C., Oct. 4.—The constitutional convention by an overwhelming majority has adopted a clause forbidding the intermarriage of a white person with any person who contains any negro blood in his or her veins. This in connection with the suffrage clause, will have the effect of disfranchising mulattoes.

Fatal Train Wreck in Texas.

Houston, Texas, Oct. 4.—A north-bound International and Great Northern passenger train was wrecked at Hulen Park last night and Engineer Barney Lane was fatally hurt. The fireman and three passengers were also injured. The train ran over a cow. No names or the extent of damage are obtainable.

Racine, Wis., Oct. 4.—The second day's business session of the Wisconsin Conference of the Methodist Episcopal church yesterday was mostly taken up by hearing the reports of the presiding elder as to the condition of the respective districts. The vote resulted: For five districts, 23; for four districts, 33; for three districts, 59. Alleged Wife Murderer Held.

Racine, Wis., Oct. 4.—The preliminary examination of Vencil Peshek, the Caledonia farmer who is charged with brutally murdering his wife, was concluded in justice court yesterday and he was bound over to the Circuit Court for trial. Application will be made before Judge Fish for bail, and if it is granted bail will be furnished. Peshek has many friends, and the trial next month will be bitterly fought.

END OF THE CONGRESS.

Catholics Close Their Meeting at Washington with a Procession.

Washington, Oct. 4.—The Eucharistic congress of the Catholic Church completed its session last night with a procession, led by Cardinal Gibbons and including most of the archbishops, bishops and dignitaries of the American hierarchy, through the Catholic University grounds to the steps of McMahon Hall, where the Cardinal pronounced benediction. Prior to the procession the business of the congress was concluded by the passage of a resolution embodying the results accomplished. A significant feature of the resolution was its strong statement in favor of Sunday observance, as a practical means of sanctifying the holy eucharist. The resolutions also reaffirm full adherence to the declarations of the third ecumenical conference at Baltimore on the Sunday question, the chief point in the declaration being that saloons should be closed on Sunday. Archbishop Corrigan of New York and other high prelates were on the platform when this resolution was read and unanimously adopted. Cardinal Gibbons and Archbishop Ryan and Kain, constituting a committee to direct the funds for Indian and negro mission work, concluded their sessions. A member of the committee was authority for the statement that the sessions were confined to a consideration of the needs of the several mission schools. After working all day the apportionment was completed.

Fusion to Beat Tammany.

New York, Oct. 4.—The first steps toward a union of the political forces opposed to Tammany Hall for the coming campaign were taken in meetings of the Chamber of Commerce and of representatives of various anti-Tammany forces yesterday, wherein it was resolved to put a fusion ticket in the field and to conduct a campaign against Tammany under the direction of a committee of fifty organized on the lines of the old committee of seventy.

Place for the Fight Not Selected.

Dallas, Tex., Oct. 4.—The Florida Athletic club has not determined on a new location for the Corbett-Fitzsimmons fight, though there is a number of candidates, among them New Laredo and Paso del Norte, Mexico, Colbert's Ferry, I. T., and Lincoln, Neb. The club has received two or three telegrams from each of these places to-day, but has so far closed with none.

Attempted to Wreck a Train.

Jackson, Mich., Oct. 4.—The fast Eastern express narrowly escaped being wrecked at Francisco, fourteen miles east of this city Wednesday evening. Walter Rogers, 18 years old, is here in jail charged with changing the lights and turning the switch. He claims to have parents in Mississippi, but is a typical tramp.

Women Will Be Admitted.

Fremont, Neb., Oct. 4.—The North Nebraska Methodist conference by unanimous vote, enacted the Hamilton amendment and declared in favor of the admission of women to the general conference on an equal footing with men.

Rogers Committed Suicide.

Cambridge, Mass., Oct. 4.—The autopsy on the body of Elliott F. Rogers, the instructor at Harvard, who was found dead in a laboratory at Harvard Tuesday night, shows that it was a case of suicide. Medical Examiner Durell found a large quantity of cyanide of potassium in the stomach.

TWENTIETH YEAR OF A CLUB'S WORK

LADIES MARK THE BEGINNING OF A NEW SEASON.

First of a Series of Entertainments Was Given at the State School For the Blind While Phantom Parties, Teas and Wedding Anniversaries Kept Folk Busy.

The Ladies' Historic club spent a delightful social hour as the guests of Mrs. Ogden H. Fethers, last evening. The affair was a 6 o'clock tea and was thoroughly novel and enjoyable. The club colors—the patriotic red, white and blue—were profusely used in the decoration of the tables, and the souvenirs left at the place of each guest were tied with ribbons of the same color. Mrs. Fethers is the retiring president of the club and gave the tea in honor of the first session of the year. Last year's subject was American history and the decorations served as a pleasant reminder of the fact. The great interest that Mrs. Fethers has shown in the work of the club led to the adoption during the evening of a special vote of thanks. Besides directing the work for the past year Mrs. Fethers prepared the list of topics for the year to come and spent much time in arranging the course.

The beginning of another year's work by the club recalls the fact that it is the oldest literary society in the city. Organized in 1876, it has never faltered, but has brought out any amount of hard study. It has never degenerated into a social fad. Each member is expected to work faithfully and the expectations have always been realized. One of the by-laws limits the club to thirty and there has been from the first a "waiting list" of applicants who can secure membership only through the death or resignation of a member.

The officers for the ensuing year are:

President—Mrs. Edward Ruger.
Vice President—Mrs. A. P. Lovejoy.
Secretary and Treasurer—Mrs. B. F. Dunwiddie.

Those present last evening were:

Mesdames—
Butler, Dunwiddie, Ford, S. B. Lewis, A. P. Lovejoy, Norcross, F. F. Stevens, Webster, Wright,
Miss Mary Pease.

RECITAL AT THE STATE SCHOOL

Miss Stella Stanton Gave a Pleasant Entertainment Last Evening

The first of a regular series of socials to be given at the State School for the Blind, occurred last night, it being a recital by Miss Stella Stanton who volunteered her services for the occasion. Miss Stanton is a capable elocutionist and pleased her audience very much. The music by the orchestra, directed by Mrs. M. D. Jones, and a male quartette from the school also added much to the pleasure of the evening. Messrs. Hugo Feick, Theodore Schmitke, Herbert Adams and George Wolf composed the latter organization and their voices blended very nicely. The audience was large, many from the city attending, and at the conclusion a vote of thanks was given Miss Stanton. In behalf of the school Superintendent Bliss invited all the city people to come again and thanked them for their presence on this occasion.

Miss Stanton was suffering from a severe throat difficulty that had compelled her to cancel several of her dates, but refused to disappoint the state school audience, and so went on with the program, although the effort was a painful one, and the affliction prevented her from doing herself justice. The program presented was as follows:

and about as enjoyable a phantom party as could be given, was one that Mr. and Mrs. V. P. Richardson planned and executed last night. Each of the three score of people who can bear witness to this fact wore pillowcases and sheets and vainly tried to guess who his or her odd looking neighbors were. The appearance of the sixty people who circulated in their ghostly habiliments was exceedingly grotesque and until the order to "unmask" came, the merriment was unconfined. But when the robes of white were discarded, it was simply to take part in the other joys that were in store. Dainty refreshments were served and when Smith's orchestra took their places, dancing continued until midnight.

Mr. and Mrs. George Schaller commemorated the fifteenth anniversary of the wedding ceremony that made them husband and wife last evening at their home, 52 North street. It was their crystal wedding and about twenty neighbors and friends were invited to share the joy of its proper celebration. Supper was served in the course of the evening, and Mr. Mrs. Schaller were congratulated, not only on the fact that it was a pleasant anniversary, but on the generosity of their hospitality as well. Numerous presents showed the esteem in which they were held and the occasion was voted one of the most pleasant in which the guests had joined.

Very Pleasant Social Event in Honor of Her Seventy-Fifth Anniversary.

Nine lady friends helped Mrs. A. M. Doe celebrate the seventy-fifth anniversary of her birth last evening, at her home, 111 South Main street. Refreshments were served, and the hours sped quickly away with sociability and good cheer. Several gifts that will serve to remind Mrs. Doe of the pleasant occasion in years to come were brought by the guests, and the "anniversary tea" will long be remembered. Those present were:

Yesterday's Proceedings.

Yesterday was devoted to organization and appointment of committees and hearing of the reports of officers. Yesterday afternoon the question of the Wisconsin Suffrage association becoming an auxiliary to the national association was discussed and the resolution unanimously adopted. In the evening the presidents annual address by the Rev. Olympia Brown of Racine, gave a brief history of the organization of the New England Equal Suffrage bodies. She advocated constant work along all lines in all legislative bodies, in the courts and in both the great political parties. She advised that women form clubs in both parties and make themselves acquainted with politics. The republicans, she said, would have inserted the suffrage plank in 1885; but the prohibitionists frightened them by declaring all women would vote for prohibition. She said The Wisconsin Citizen was worth more than all other literature extant and advised all to take it.

HAD A BUSY WEEK UP AT MILTON

Belknap-Dunn and Sayre-Barnhart Weddings—Other Crisp News.

Milton, Oct. 4.—The marriage of H. L. Belknap, of Chicago, and Miss Imogene Dunn, daughter of Rev. E. M. Dunn, will take place at the Seventh Day Baptist church next Wednesday afternoon. A large number of invited guests will be present. E. P. Clarke and Miss Bessie Clarke returned from a six weeks' visit in east this week. They were in eight different states and the "Squire" says he did not miss a meal during the time. George Sayre and Miss Florence Barnhart were united in marriage at high noon on Tuesday, President Whitford performing the ceremony. They will reside here. Congratulations and best wishes are in order. While in Chicago recently we called on the Creamery Package Company and received a cordial welcome at the hands of Messrs. Belknap & Walker. The concern occupy a large four story structure on Washington street, which is packed from cellar to roof with dairy supplies. As many of our readers are aware, the firm is made up of men who formerly made Milton their home, and therefore our citizens feel a sense of pride in the success which has attended the corporation since its inception. They have branches and factories at Portland, Ind., Mauckato, Minn., Kansas City and other points, and are second in amount of business transacted and quality of goods manufactured to none. The friends of C. M. Gates, president of the company, will be sorry to hear that his health is not good, and that his residence of several months abroad has not been as beneficial as his friends had hoped it might be. He is expected at home next week. Frank W. Moulton, of Chicago, was a visitor in the village this week. He was a student here in the seventies, the days when "Father Jack" Naughtin, of Milwaukee; "Tangle" Welch, the Darien real estate agent; Bert Briggs, of Alabama; Clem. Crumb and others of that ilk were at the front on College Hill and made things lively for both the "elder" and townspeople. Since his student days in Milton. Moulton has spent some time on the Pacific coast, finally locating in Chicago where he has gained fame as a cyclist, his great forte being century runs of which he has made a great number, and on one occasion rode two hundred miles in one day. He represents the bicycle tire firm of Morgan & Wright and is known as the "Kola Fiend" from the fact that he is a firm believer in the efficacy of that drug as a strength builder which enables its devotees to endure long continued physical exercise without ill results, having tested it freely both in his own case and that of other long distance riders. Harry Holmes and wife, of Clinton, were the guests of Milton relatives recently. Workmen in the employ of the St. Paul road took down the wrecked windmill at this station on Wednesday. Mrs. W. W. Clarke, who has been visiting friends at Louisville and Chicago, is at home. Miss Lulu Williams came back from Milwaukee this week, where she has been spending several weeks. Reverend O. E. Carpenter and W. T. Millar are Milton's representatives at the Racine M. E. conference. Fred Whitford who has been engaged in evangelistic work at Louisville, Ky., for some time, is at home again. Al Gifford was at Whitewater and Elkhorn this week assisting in the instituting of Home Forum societies. Principal Clarke of the graded school has been entertaining his father, H. F. Clarke of Berlin. J. N. Anderson of the class of '92 in Milton College, was in town this week visiting his brother J. C. Anderson. He was enroute for Chicago to resume his studies in the Theological Department of the University of Chicago. Rev. C. E. Carpenter, of this place, was made a member of the committee on education at the Racine meeting of the Wisconsin M. E. conference. Miss Maymie Jones of Clinton, was the guest of Milton friends this week. Mrs. T. B. Collins of Albion, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Ezra Crandall. Miss Rena Hughes of Milwaukee, is the guest of former schoolmates. Mrs. Lowery, of Evansville, has been enjoying a visit with her sisters, the Misses Vincent.

BAD FIRE AT STEBBINSVILLE.

Murray Brothers Lose Nearly All Their Buildings—Other News.

Stebbinsville, Oct. 4.—Murray Brothers met with quite a loss by fire at 2 o'clock on Monday afternoon. All the buildings on the south side of the road were burned, and a strong wind from the south west fanned the flames. The fire fighters had hard work to save the buildings on the north side of the road, but finally succeeded. There is but light insurance on the property. Henry Boothroyd came very near losing one of his eyes while cutting sugar cane. One of the stalks struck him in the eye, inflicting the injury. He went to Edgerton and had Dr. Lord dress the wound. The miller has commenced to work on the dam and will have the mill in running order as soon as it rains. The sugar cane mill is running these days, and is making some very good syrup.

True to Life.

The scene and incidents of Denman Thompson's idealic creation, "The Old Homestead" are not dependent upon "The boast of heraldry, the pomp of power," but, on the contrary, are a faithful representation of a play that must be called a transcript from life. The original company will give the Old Homestead at Myers Opera House next Tuesday evening.

WEE BABES ARE LEFT WITHOUT A MOTHER

PITIFUL STORY TOLD BY CHARLES STEVENS.

Says His Wife Left Him With Three Children Aged Four Weeks, Eighteen Months and Three Years, Which He Could Not Care For—Other Children Taken Care Of.

Four babes, aged four weeks, eighteen months and three years are now quartered at the county building.

They are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stevens of Spring Valley and will probably be sent to the state institution at Sparta.

It was a mournful tale that Mr. Stevens told the authorities.

"My wife had threatened to leave me, but I didn't think she meant it," he said. "But she did, for one day she left, as I suppose to go to her relatives in Indiana. Then I was left with these helpless children on my hands. I work for C. Frick and could not care for them."

Stevens came here, hired a team and went back for the children, after which he "drove to the county buildings, where he was told he must first see Superintendent of the Poor Kenyon. In the meantime the babes were taken in by the kind-hearted asylum managers, and they will be cared for until it is decided as to what shall be done with them.

Other Children Cared For.

R. A. Bushnell of Edgerton, also had a sorry tale to tell when he came to town to see Mr. Kenyon yesterday afternoon and see if his two children, aged eight and nine years, could not be placed somewhere where they could receive better care than he could give them. He said that he resided on a small place near Edgerton, and had had a hard time to get along. He had been out of work for some time and his wife having recently died, he decided to come to this city and see what could be done as he was unable to provide for the little ones. Superintendent Kenyon told him to bring the children here and on Tuesday he will take them to Sparta where the state will minister to their wants.

The death of Ira Ames, the Lake Koshkonong fisherman, which occurred a few days ago, left his nine-year-old daughter to her own resources and as she is unable to support herself, she was brought here and Superintendent Kenyon will take her to Sparta also.

FEW KNOW ABOUT THE SHAKERS

AN INTERESTING, GOD-FEARING PEOPLE WHO HAVE GIVEN THE WORLD MANY IMPORTANT DISCOVERIES.

We may not accept their peculiar religious beliefs nor can we enter into the spirit of their sacrifices. It is not necessary to believe as they do, but we can and do respect their sincerity of purpose and the honor and uprightness which marks all their business dealings.

The Shakers have always been successful inventors, and some of the greatest of the conveniences of the present day found origin in their settlements.

In one particular they excel all other men or classes of men, and that is in cultivation of medicinal herbs and plants and their preparation for use. They have made it a study for more than one hundred years. It is one of their peculiar industries. Their lives have been devoted to it.

Their latest and greatest achievement is the Shaker Digestive Cordial. It is not offered as a cure for all diseases. It does not pretend to be, but one disease it will cure, and that is indigestion.

Sufferers who resort to its use have not long to wait to see the result. The effect is almost immediate. The first dose usually gives relief and if continued a permanent cure will follow.

It not only contains already digested food, but digests food as well, thus toning up the general system. An interesting pamphlet is now being issued by the Shakers and can be had for the asking at almost any drug store.

Try a twenty-five cent bottle of Digestive Cordial and see what it will do for you.

HEROIC WOMEN.

Their Struggle Against a Common and Merciless Enemy.

[SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS.]

Woman's heroism is not evinced by fearlessness or enterprise in time of danger, but her courage and fortitude are unquestionable in time of suffering.

Think of the woman who smiles and tries to make those around her cheerful, while she is racked with the excruciating tortures of woman trouble.

Think of one who, day by day, begs her physician to help her, while the torture of tortures could not add to her misery.

Does she yield? No! She endures her agonies, and meets her friends with cheerfulness.

This is woman's heroism, and few men realize how prevalent they are. Physicians rarely render relief in such cases.

After twenty years of success, with ever-increasing popularity, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is, to-day, woman's only sure and safe refuge from inflammation, ulceration, falling and displacement of the womb, ovarian trouble, leucorrhoea, painful and suppressed menstruation, kidney trouble, nervous prostration, and all manner of distressing and life-sapping female diseases.

"O my sisters, believe what is told you of this wonderful medicine! Before I took it I had falling of the womb and leucorrhoea. My womb came down so badly I could not walk across the floor; the pain was excruciating; now all is so changed, and I am so happy. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has saved me from a life of misery. Don't, don't suffer, I say, when a cure is so easily obtained."—MRS. WILLIAM HOWE, 163 Antoin Street, Detroit, Mich.

A Possible Reason.

"Do you know, Jay," asked Miss Daisy Medders, significantly, "that there are a great many more single men than married men in the prisons? And do you know what that proves?"

"Mebby it proves," answered Jay Green, diplomatically, "that they'd rather go to prison than get married."

Beware of Counterfeiters

Who infest the market and are the means of robbing sick people of their money, and what is still greater consequence of not unfrequently aggravating the complaints under which they labor. It is an act of duty we owe to society to warn the people against these dangerous frauds. A little care on the part of the purchaser will protect them from imposition by bearing in mind these facts: Never buy where it is offered in bulk (in kegs or jugs) as the genuine Hostetter's Stomach Bitters are sold only in bottles having the handsome steel plate label displaying the combat between St. George and the Dragon, and having at the bottom a miniature note of hand for one cent, bearing a facsimile of the signature of the president of the company. Over the cork is a metallic cap, on which is impressed the name of the article, together with a medallion head in the center. Any person selling the counterfeit Hostetter's Stomach Bitters we shall not hesitate to bring to justice, as we never fail to convict.

NO DEMOCRATS BIG ENOUGH.

Cleveland may or may not be ambitious to serve another term; but it is a solemn fact all the same, that his party is restricted to him as the sole representative of its merits who strikes the country as being large enough to discuss for the presidency. He is the only man in his party who can be talked of in the presidential relation with conceded propriety. There would be no third term talk if the personal supremacy of Cleveland could be antagonized by some men of equal force and equal reputation for success. But the democratic party has no such man. Its other leaders are all of an inferior order, and the people are slow to accept them even as contingencies. That's one reason why they will send a republican to the White House next year.

REBELS BATTLE SPAIN.

Those "few thousand Cuban guerrillas" seem to be making a very good showing. General Campos has decided not to take the offensive until he gets the 25,000 additional troops which are promised to him in November. Then he will have a little over 100,000 men under his command. This is three times as many as the British ever had in this country at one time during the revolution. If the Cubans can hold their own against such a force as that there is no reason why they should not gain their independence.

SHIPMENTS ARE GROWING.

The grain and cotton movement is likely to start an inward flow of gold before October ends. Cotton exportation is smaller than it was at this time last year but it seems to have started in earnest. Wheat and corn exportations are larger than they were then and are increasing. Shipments in all three of these products were later in starting than in 1894, which is one of the reasons why gold went out in large sums recently.

The latest canvass shows sound money views to be held by all but eighty-eight out of the three hundred and fifty-six representatives, while only thirty-nine out of the eighty-eight senators will vote for free coinage. Even after allowing some margin for giving the benefit of doubtful votes to the anti-silver side, the canvass may be taken as quite a positive confirmation of the belief that there has been a marked change in the opinions of the voters on this subject.

The governor of Virginia must have meant it for a joke when he congratulated the governor of Texas on his efforts to prevent the prize fight in Texas, inasmuch as prize fights are of weekly occurrence on the Virginia side of the Potomac river, opposite Washington, and the governor of Virginia does nothing to prevent them.

General Harrison is ungrateful. He is booming McKinley's rival when McKinley was the man who saved him in Minneapolis three years ago. Two hours before the nomination was made McKinley could by a word have turned the tide his own way. He implored his friends to stand by Harrison, and they did. It might have been better if they hadn't.

August 31, 1895, the democratic tariff had been in effect one year. This is the way Uncle Sam found that the book's of the year's business footed up: Receipts from all sources $295,061.032; balance on the wrong side of the ledger $63,965.310.

The Atlanta exposition is away down south, but the prices charged are away up out of sight, unless some of the writers are grossly slandering the town and its business men.

Mr. Cleveland didn't want General Miles to have the honor of commanding the army, but he didn't have the gall to jump a junior over his head. So Miles commands.

Brought right down to the question of open Sunday saloons or closed Sunday saloons, the republicans are perfectly willing to be found on the side of the latter.

Isn't the missionaries in China, but the opium trade, that John Bull is preparing to protect by massing a strong fleet of war vessels in Chinese waters.

The Cuban revolutionists want to borrow $10,000,000, and the best security they have to offer is American sympathy.

The democratic platform in New York means exactly what it was intended to mean—nothing.

Attorney General Harmon is no more likely to bother the trusts than he is to resign his office.

Senator Gorman never found his job, bossing the Maryland democrats, so hard as it is this year.

The revolt of the anti-Tammany democrats in New York is really a fight against the leadership of Hill, and the love between Hill and Cleveland will not be any more fervent in consequence.

Surely Mr. Cleveland may laugh with "ghoulish glee" at Senator Hill's present predicament.

New York is as certain to go republican next year, and this year too, as Pennsylvania is.

The star adopted as the emblem of the democratic party in New York is a falling star.

Wonder if Dick Croker doesn't wish he had remained in England a while longer.

Perhaps Brother Talmage wants to be chaplain of the house of representatives.

W. D. HASTINGS WAS CREMATED

Last of His Lifetime Wishes Was Carried Out By the Family.

In compliance with the wish expressed during his lifetime, the remains of W. D. Hastings who died at his home in Missouri, was reduced to ashes as had been the body of his wife some years before. In a letter to W. G. Wheelock, C. W. Trott, Mr. Hastings' son-in-law tells of the sickness and death of Mr. Hastings. It says that he was sick some time and suffered greatly, during which time he lived on liquid food.

"He was very anxious to die," the letter continues. "Death was but the entrance to something higher for him. It was his wish to be cremated, so Allan (his son) and I took the remains to the Missouri crematory at St. Louis."

PREVENTION OF DISEASE.

Keep the Stomach Right.

It is surprising what a safeguard a healthy stomach is against disease. And again it is not surprising when it is remembered that the only way we get pure blood, strong nerves and firm flesh is from wholesome food, well digested. It is the half digested food that causes the mischief. When the food lies in the stomach for hours, fermenting, forming gases which poison the blood and the whole system, causing headache, pains in the back, shoulders, blades and chest, loss of appetite, palpitation, biliousness.

The safest cure for indigestion is Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, composed of vegetable essence, fruit salts, pure pepsin and Golden Seal. Dissolve one or two of these tablets in the mouth after each meal. They are pleasant tasting and mingling with the food so assist the weak stomach that the food is perfectly digested before it has time to ferment.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets cure indigestion and increase flesh because they digest flesh forming foods like meat, eggs, etc.

Sold by druggists at 50 Cents per package. Absolutely safe and harmless.

PAY CAR HAS MADE ITS FINAL JOURNEY

C. & N. W. RAIDROAD ABANDONS THE OLD SYSTEM.

Hereafter Janesville Employees Will Get Their Money In the Form Of Chicago Drafts—The New Scheme Is Cheaper and Safer For the Company.

No longer will the glad announcement that "the pay car is here," cheer the employees of the C. & N. road once each month.

The pay car isn't coming to Janesville any more.

Never again will the gold pieces with which the men were usually paid, jingle in their pockets.

The road hasn't failed, and neither has payment been suspended, but hereafter the men will get their money in the form of Chicago drafts. The new rule has just been made, the order reaching Janesville last night.

Ever since the first fireman tossed the first stick of wood into the fire-box of the first engine, the pay car has been one of the features of the C. & N. W. company's system of doing business. Once each month it has come skimming into Janesville, "running wild" and possessed of the right of way.

Salaries Paid in Cash.

It was a compact yellow car, and but for the barred windows, the display of firearms and the frowning watchman, it might be taken for the ordinary baggage car. But it wasn't. It carried a freight that would buy a whole train: for each employee got his salary for the month in actual cash, and as a general thing, largely in gold. When the pay car left Chicago no one knew how much money it would have aboard. At each station the employees passed in in regular order, their names were called and checked by the clerk, while the paymaster himself handled the cash. When all had received their stipend, it rolled out of town again, and this proceeding was gone through with at each station along the line. It was a good system, and satisfactory to the men, but occasionally a pay car was "held up," and then the company lost enough cash to buy coupling pins and links without number. Still the company stuck to this system long after many other roads had discarded it.

The Crew of a Car.

The notice that the system was to be abandoned was a great surprise to the Janesville employees, among whom the pay car's coming was counted as one of the things as sure as taxes and death. The local men got their cash from the car that covered the Wisconsin, Ashland and Madison division, while the one that bore the wealth for the employees of the Iowa and Dakota division was frequently whirled over Rock county soil.

The crew of the pay car consisted of seven men. There was a conductor, a brakeman, an engineer and a fireman, the same as any other train would require. Then there was the paymaster and his clerk who handled the cash and kept the books. Last but not least, there was a very quiet gentleman who stood around with a thirty-eight calibre Smith & Wesson revolver in his hip pocket. He was the watchman and he kept his eyes open for "cold decks" and all that sort of thing.

New System Less Complicated.

The new system is less complicated, less expensive and less dangerous. Once a month the drafts on Chicago banks will be sent from the main office to the heads of departments for distribution among the employees. This will do away with several salaries and the operating expense of two cars. The move has been talked over among the managers of the road for some time, but not until last night did the word that the change had been made come. The order was sent out from Chicago by Second Vice President Marshal M. Markman and the new system will go into use at once, last month's trip of the pay car being the last one it will make.

"I think that we will like the new system when we get used to it said a local employ this morning. The pay car has been coming for many years, however, and it will seem strange not to hear its familiar whistle as it came flying over the Monterey bridge."

FALL FROM A LADDER BROKE HIP AND RIBS

JULIUS LENTZ SERIOUSLY HURT LAST EVENING.

Round of a Ladder Broke and He Fell Across a Plank on the Ground—James Gagan's Shoulder Dislocated Chris Hanson Loses a Finger—Mrs. Hell Paralyzed.

Julius Lentz got a hard fall at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

His hip was broken, two ribs were fractured, and internal injuries are feared.

Lentz was engaged in putting the siding on the barn at his home 204 Western avenue, and was working from a ladder. As he leaned over, his weight came all on one round, and the stick parted beneath his feet. He fell in such a way as to be unable to save himself and an instant later he lay groaning on the ground. A piece of plank had been left at the foot of the ladder and upon this, Lentz fell, striking with full force on his right side. A messenger was at once sent for Dr. Ransom W. Edden, who arrived soon after. It didn't take the skilled physician long to find that Lentz was seriously injured.

Falling as he did, across the plank, his weight had caused the fracture of his hip, as well as the breaking of two ribs. Dr. Edden dressed the injuries, and Lentz was resting comfortably this afternoon. He was severely injured, however, and it is feared that internal injuries were inflicted in addition to the broken bones.

James Gagan, who resides at the corner of Center and North streets, fell against a beam while working on a hay press in the town of Porter yesterday, and dislocated his shoulder, beside receiving a number of painful bruises. He was brought home, and Dr. Palmer attended him.

Chris Hanson, of the Hanson Furniture company, had a finger cut off while working on a buzz saw at the factory this morning. Dr. Sutherland dressed the injury.

Mrs. E. Hell, 207 South Academy street, was stricken with paralysis this morning, and when Dr. James Mills arrived, he found that the stroke had rendered the entire left side powerless.

GREAT BALL GAME NOW GOING ON

Dubuques and Edgertons Are Playing at Athletic Park This Afternoon.

What came pretty near being two Janesville nines met on the diamond at Athletic park this afternoon. True, they went under the name of the "Dubuques" and the "Edgertons," but the players were mostly Bower City men.

The Dubuque team were composed of local men entirely, nearly the whole team that represented that city in the Eastern Iowa League and later the Western Association, being from this city. They came to bat as follows: Bear, M. Birmingham, Fred Dixon, Thomas Morrissey, George Wilbur, 'Cal' Roberts, Cooley, John Wilbur and Will McGinley.

In the Edgerton team there were also a number of Janesville men, as will be seen by the following list arranged in their batting order: Warner, L. Whitteit, Bruckta, Connors, Holman, Sullivan, Schicker and Garvin.

The game was called at 3:30 o'clock, the teams being made up as follows:

PRIZE FIGHT NEAR JOHNSTOWN

Farm Hands Thumped to a Finish Despite Walworth County's Sheriff

Two "husky" farm hands who have been working near Johnstown and a crowd of people who wanted to see them punch each other dodged all over the eastern part of Rock and the western edge of Walworth county last night, in their zeal to pull off a fight that the officers had prohibited, and they were finally successful. The mill was between Wayne Peterson and Paul McLaron. It was started between Johnstown and Whitewater, but the authorities from the latter place stopped it. Then Sheriff Hollister and Deputy Sheriff Stowell, of Walworth county, heard of the proposed mill and drove over to prevent it from taking place. They were met by the pugilists who assured them that the fight had been declared off. After the officers returned to town, the affair was hastily rearranged and fought to a finish at 3 o'clock this morning.

"I had an invitation to attend" said a Janesville man this morning "but I thought I hadn't better, so I came home instead."

The thief was soon found in a near-by saloon and made to give up the stolen property, Mr. Mayer deciding not to prosecute the case.

BUTCHERS IN A MERRY ROW.

Sunday Closing Agreement Is Not Likely To Be Lived Up To.

When Janesville butchers agree to close up on Sunday, it is pretty good evidence that you can buy all the meat you can pay for on the morning of the first day of the week. If, on the other hand, they agree to keep open on Sunday, you would have to get your meat on Saturday night or go without. Recent events would seem to make that belief plausible. Papers were circulated on both sides of the river a few days ago, agreeing to close on Sunday. All the dealers signed it but one and things seemed to be serene, but they were not, and they kept getting worse until this morning when it was declared that the deal was "off" and that the shops would all be open. Time alone can tell the story now.

DR. MENHERT GOES TO CAPE TOWN, AFRICA

GERMAN PHYSICIAN'S WHEREABOUTS ARE KNOWN.

Max Pfennig Says He Left But One or Two Bills, and There Were Offsets For Them—Will Be Chief Physician to a German Colony.

Dr. K. Menhert has not "disappeared." Neither has he gone back to Germany. But he left the city Monday evening for a long trip. He is headed for Capetown, Africa. There is a strong German colony in Capetown, and a German doctor is regularly retained. A few weeks after Dr. Menhert left Germany to come to Janesville, he was invited to take the post of associate physician in Capetown. He declined, but six weeks ago when the position of chief physician was offered him he decided to accept. He told a few of his friends about it and would have started September 1, but had a patient he could not leave. Monday night he took the 6:25 train for Chicago and Wednesday he sailed for Southampton. He will go from Southampton to Africa without delay.

Dr. Menhert left only one or two bills here," said Max Pfennig today, "but he left offsets for all of them. He had a good practice here but could not make collections. There is $300 due him today."

IF I HAD THE TIME.
If I had the time to find a place
And sit me down full face to face
With my better self, that stands no show
In my daily life that rushes so,
It might be then I would see my soul
Was stumbling still toward the shining goal;
I might be moved by the thought sublime,
If I had the time!
If I had the time to let my heart
Speak out and take in my life a part,
To look about and to stretch a hand
To a comrade quartered in no luck land;
Ah, God! If I might but just sit still
And hear the note of the whippoorwill,
I think that my wish with God's would rhyme,
If I had the time!
If I had the time to learn from you
How much for comfort my word could do,
And I told you then of my sudden will
To kiss your feet when I did you ill—
If the tears a-buck of the bravado
Could force their way and let you know—
Brothers, the souls of us all would chime
If we had the time!
—Richard E. Burton.

BY CHANCE.

I don't know exactly why Jack called me governor, but I suppose it was because I was some years older than he was and because, when he was a wee tottler, I had made him kites and showed him how to spin tops, and perhaps because I used to help him out of scrapes, either with his teacher or some playmate too large for him to "lick." At all events, I got the name, and it has stuck to me. What surprised me most, however, was to hear it a few weeks ago, when I supposed Jack was thousands of miles away. I was strolling leisurely down an old street in Dublin, looking about for some old landmark of the "stamping ground" of my childhood. How things had changed! Yonder where the little frame church had been was a stately stone edifice. Over the old golf links had been built long rows of stores and houses, but there—yes, it must be—there was a house that had not been changed.

"Governor," said a voice behind me, "isn't that the house where Alice lived?"

I never should have known the speaker had it not been for the epithet. It was Jack, careworn and gray and looking 35 instead of 27.

"Jack, old boy, what brings you here? I thought you were in America."

"I have been in New Orleans for a good many years. Helen used to like the climate, but the company's agent here has gone, and I must needs come and take care of the business until another man is appointed. Besides the president knew that I once lived here and thought it would be both a change from my surroundings and a pleasure to see the old place. But isn't that Alice's old home?"

"Yes," said I, "I am quite sure of it, but you ought to know best. Wasn't she once a sweetheart of yours?"

"Oh, don't speak of that! You pain me! It brings back such a flood of sad recollections even to look upon the old scenes. I don't know that you have heard, but I am a widower."

"My poor fellow! I extend you my most heartfelt sympathies. But I didn't know you had ever married. However, we have kept such poor track of each other that I don't wonder at my ignorance. But can't you tell me something of yourself? Come, I'm your 'governor.'"

"Well, 'governor,'" said he, with a faint shadow of his old smile, "I left America nine years ago. I went straight to Quebec and lived there three years. It was there I met her who became my wife. We were married just six years ago last month. Her health failed and we went south. She grew worse, gave birth to our first child and died. That was a little over two years ago, and as the child is in good hands (my sister-in-law's) I consented to come here."

"But, Jack, what made you go to America? Why didn't you stay here?"

"Well, it was the same old tale of the young workingman not being fit to marry his idol. As you said, Alice was my sweetheart. She said so herself, dear girl, but her brother Tom—there was the difficulty. I called on Alice very often and had asked her to be my wife, though I was but 19. She said 'Yes,' but Tom wouldn't hear of it. I tried to bring him around by all manner of means, but he was resolute. He had never liked me, and he never hesitated to tell me so. In fact, he took great pleasure in rating me before as well as behind my back."

"One night—I think it was Halloween—a crowd of young fellows got out on a lark, and in their sport took Tom's small donkey out of its shed, and pushing it upon the roof of a wagon house, which sloped almost to the ground, tied it there. Tom thought I was the prime mover in the trick, though I knew nothing of it, and accordingly the next night, when I called, promptly showed me the door, with the injunction never to set foot inside it again."

"I saw Alice at times, but she seemed somewhat changed. So after I had tried all in my power to straighten things I got angry about it, and when I was offered a position in Canada I was glad to leave. My marriage was not spite work. I loved Alice and always shall, but I knew I could be happy with Helen and then she said she loved me."

Just then we passed the house. It was the same old place we both remembered. The same trees and bushes spread their branches about the lawn. In one corner of the yard stood a large, old fashioned bucket pump and on one of the boards of the side fence was the rude, weather stained carving, "Jack Higgins and Alice Neal."

Jack turned red, then white, as he looked at the names and then glanced at me.

"Do you suppose she lives there now?" he asked.

"I'm sure I don't know," I replied, "but let's ask some one."

not married. Some fellow off in America jilted her, so they said.

"Well, Jack," said I, after we came out, "I'm not a matchmaker, but if, as you say, you always have had a warm affection for Alice, why don't you begin again? It isn't too late."

Jack blushed to the roots of his hair and said he should never go there after having been shown the door. I tried to coax him, but it would not do, yet all the time I could see he wished to meet his old "flame" once more.

Jack and I lived together at the same hotel and daily I spoke to him of going to call as a friend. At last the day before he was to return to New Orleans I got him down near Neal's home. We passed it six or eight times, and I began to feel foolish at promenading up and down the street. Once he stopped in front of the gate and he put forth his hand to open it, but drew back like a young schoolboy. Then I told him that I had had enough of such fooling and that when we approached again we would have to go in. We came up. I opened the gate and pushed him forward up the steps.

"Heavens, 'governor!'" he gasped, "Ring the bell for me!"

Tom Neal came to the door and greeted us warmly.

"Jack," said he, "I owe you an apology—have owed you one for years. I found out who did that work with the donkey and I'm sorry I ever treated you as I did."

We began to chat of old times, and shortly Alice came down stairs. She was the same girl we had known, only matured. I felt sure that she had seen us before we entered, for she was dressed in her loveliest. She met Jack not quite like a sweetheart, but very tenderly.

It did me good to tell them of Jack's diffidence and what a hard time I had to get him to come. They were a little displeased that he did not come before, and when we said something about sailing Alice exclaimed:

"Sailing! What! Are you going back?"

"Yes," returned Jack demurely, "I start tomorrow."

Alice hummed to herself a moment, then going over to him and taking his hands in her own, said:

"Well, I don't propose that you shall go without me. I have loved you, and you me. You once asked me to be your wife, but we were separated. I know you are too bashful to ask me again, so I ask you to be my husband."

To say that we were surprised is putting it mildly, but Jack turned to me and said, "'Governor,' you are a matchmaker, after all."—Chicago News.

Future of the Microscope.

As the physician's assistant and guide in diagnosis, the microscope is coming rapidly to the front. It is now the custom with some advanced physicians whenever there is a case with obscure symptoms, or where consultations are thought necessary, to draw a few drops of the patient's blood and examine it under the microscope. This almost invariably decides the condition and is, in many diseases, an infallible guide, as the blood is the great sewerage system of humanity. It takes up and carries to the lungs whatever impurities may exist. There they are consumed or exhaled. It therefore stands to reason that the blood is the index to the state of the system.

Another test adopted by all up to date doctors is the examination of the perspiration after a great degree of heat has been applied to the body. The sufferer is put into a steam box, and after some moments of profuse perspiration the surface of the body is scraped with a sharp steel instrument, by means of which whatever impurities are thrown out may be taken from the pores. This, with the blood examination, is thought by some practitioners to afford all of the assistance necessary in determining the nature of the most obscure diseases. Of course, there are what may be called new diseases, and this method will enable the skilled microscopist to detect them and study their genesis and treatment.—New York Ledger.

Fare to a Star.

Besides being a great astronomer, Sir Robert Ball is a man of figures. He tells us what it would cost to reach one of the most distant stars, supposing a railway were constructed to it from London and that the low rate of 1 penny per 100 miles prevailed. If the intending passenger could present to the booking clerk the whole of the national debt of the United Kingdom—a sum exceeding £670,000,000—he would require 5,000 huge carts to convey it in sovereigns to the ticket office. Even when the poor clerk had accomplished the lengthy task of counting the "fare," he would want another £103,000,000 before he would feel justified in issuing even a third class ticket, and there could not be a return one for the money.—Scottish Nights.

SUPERIOR—The paying of $360,000 of a city's bonded debt.

Health and strength carry us through dangers and make us safe in the presence of peril. A perfectly strong man with rich, pure blood, has nothing to fear from germs. He may breathe in the bacilli of consumption with impunity. If there is a weak spot where the germs may find an entrance to the tissues, then the trouble begins. Disease germs propagate with lightning-like rapidity. Once in the blood, the only way to get rid of them is to kill them. This is what Dr. Williams' Golden Medical Discovery is for. It purifies the blood. That means that it kills the germs, but that is only part of what it does. It assists digestion by stimulating the secretion of digestive fluids, so promoting assimilation and nutrition; purifies and enriches the blood and so supplies the tissues with the food they need. It builds up strong, healthy flesh and puts the whole body into a disease-resisting state. THE TENDERFOOT'S FRIEND

Turks Are Hurting Themselves.

London, Oct. 4.—It was announced yesterday afternoon that the British Foreign Office had received official confirmation of the dispatches telling of serious rioting at Constantinople. The officials of the Foreign Office point out that such a display of savagery cannot be regarded otherwise than as a serious check upon any effort to establish better relations between the Armenians and the Turks.

Want a Change of Venue.

Hannibal, Mo., Oct. 4.—The attorneys for Dr. Hearne and wife, charged with murder of Amos J. Stillwell, Mrs. Hearne's first husband, have served notice on Prosecuting Attorney H. Clay Heather of their intention on Oct. 9, 1895, of making an application for a change of venue. If the application is granted the celebrated murder trial will be tried at Bowling Green.

Miners Raise a Large Relief Fund.

Calumet, Mich., Oct. 4.—Employees of the Osceola mine and stamp mill have raised $770 in cash for the families of the fire sufferers, which is a large amount, especially considering the enforced idleness of the donors for several weeks last month. The burned shaft is now being retimbered, which will take six months and the mine is running with full force again.

Nice Time to Ride.

Another month commences and we know that is the prettiest month in the year. You ride through the country and see the leaves turning golden, you inhale the fresh cool air and thoroughly enjoy life that is if your buggy rides easily. The Henney has the points for comfort and durability, from the wheels and springs to the trimmings it is built to fill every requirement. See our repository. F. A. Taylor.

This is GreatCLOAK*Weather.

Probably you have said the same thing these past few days, and in thinking of Cloaks you no doubt have let your thoughts run in the direction of this store, where everything that's up to date in the garment line is to be seen first, and as we own every coat we show, we are a little better prepared to name prices than would be the case were the garments consigned. Every buyer thinks he is a little better posted than the other fellow, and as long as he rests easy in this belief he is probably satisfied; but we have reason to believe that in buying Cloaks we have an inside track, for if you don't know it yourself just ask your neighbor and she will probably tell you that when she wants to see Janesville's representative line of Cloaks she goes to Archie Reid's, and she will also tell you that she can always save money by so doing. There must be reasons for this, and we know what they are. Come in and we will let you into the secret. The new 26 inch Jackets for Ladies and Misses; hundreds of them on sale, and all the new Capes.

Buy where they all buy.

ARCHIE REID & CO.

He Forgets

That you sold him a cheap and poorly made suit, and when it fades and rips he says: I'll NEVER buy any more goods there. He Smiles.
